Vocation View: "Love never fails." Trust the love of God and follow your heart. (1 Corinthians 12:31-13:4-13)

Thought for the Day: We must neither doubt nor hesitate with respect to the words of the Lord; rather, we must be fully persuaded that every word of God is true and possible, even if our nature should rebel against the idea; for in this lies the test of faith.

On the weekend of January 16th & 17th the heat in church was unexpectedly not available due to a broken pipe in the boiler room. The broken pipe was actually scheduled to be fixed because of a small leak on January 18th. Unfortunately it broke before we could get a crew here to fix it. I apologize for any discomfort you may have experienced at the weekend Masses.

Congratulations to our boys' basketball teams who participated in our St. Lawrence basketball tournament last Saturday.

The Ignatian Volunteer Corps: (IVC) is an organization of men and women in their 50s to 70’s, who want to use their talents and life experiences to help others. While living at home, IVC volunteers commit to two days a week to work directly with people who are poor or with organizations that pursue the structural issues and concerns that affect them. IVC volunteers gather to reflect prayerfully on their apostolic work experience to discover the deeper meaning of the service that they do and to find the presence of Christ in their midst. Share your lifetime of experience. Get the experience of a lifetime. The benefits are priceless! Informational meetings will be held on Thursday, March 25th and Tuesday, March 30th.
