In preparation for Catholic Schools Week we will be collecting items to ship to those serving overseas in the armed forces. We are hoping for new toiletry items such as new toothbrushes, toothpaste, mouthwash, soaps, shampoos, combs, brushes, body lotions, and lip balms, along with edible treats such as left over holiday candies or non-perishable foods, and new or used books, playing cards or small board games. Beginning next Monday there will be boxes in the school breezeway to place all donated items in. Please help us as we offer our sense of community to those sharing their sense of service far from the safety and small comforts of their own homes and families. Let the giving continue in the New Year.

Health Hints

from

Ms. D-C, School Nurse

2012 is here!

Let us make at least some small changes to live healthier lives. Maybe reducing the amount of "fast food" by making burgers and fries a sometimes treat only! Skip the elevator and take the steps. Get more sleep-turn the TV off and go to bed early! Adults should try to get the recommended 7-8 hours of sleep a night. Make an effort to find time for a little bit of relaxation every day, perhaps by enjoying a hobby, catching up with a friend with a phone call or over lunch, or simply by praying. Everyone needs a little down time.

Best Wishes for a Happy Healthy 2012!

The cafeteria continues to accept empty juice pouches for the PTO. The empty pouches are cashed in to benefit school.

We collect pop tabs to benefit the Ronald McDonald House. Pull those pop tabs off those cans and send them into school with your student. They are weighed throughout the year and the class that brings in the most gets a pizza party. Ronald McDonald House is now offering a contest for the school that gives the most and we would love to win! Just Open, Drink, PULL TAB, & send to school!

Tabs will be weighed sometime in January 2012 so send them in as soon as possible. The class with the most tabs wins a PTO sponsored pizza party.

*A happy New Year! Grant that I
May bring no tear to any eye
When this New Year in time shall end
Let it be said I've played the friend,
Have lived and loved and labored here,
And made of it a happy year.*
