

Permission to Publish

During the school year, local newspapers, TV stations and other media publish information about St. Lawrence School. Teachers sometimes include pictures of students working on a project in their classroom in media presentations. The school may include pictures in the school newsletter or local newspaper. Student photos are not published on the website.

With this form, we are asking your permission to include your children's likeness in these publications.

My child's likeness may be released for publication in the school newsletter, St. Lawrence marketing brochure, local newspapers and/or television.
