OFFERING

OCTOBER 29, 2017

$9,137.70

Thank You for your Generosity!

Vocation View: Be at peace, following Christ leads the soul into the hands of Christ. The faithful shall abide with Him in love. (Wisdom 3:1-9)

Thought for the Day: Your first task is to be dissatisfied with yourself, fight sin and transform yourself into something better. Your second task is to put up with the trials and temptations of this world that will be brought on by the change in your life and to persevere to the very end in the midst of these things.

Formed.Org: The Catholic Faith, On Demand, features the best Catholic content all in one location. St. Lawrence has a parish subscription and parishioners are encouraged to create their own accounts. Visit www.formed.org, scroll down to the middle of the page and enter our parish code: FF6CTE and click submit. You will then be able to create your own "FREE" account.

Remembering the Dead: Traditionally, November is the month in which we remember in special and practical ways the deceased members of our families, our deceased friends and all of the faithful departed.

I want to take this opportunity to correct a popular misconception about what happens after a person dies. Too many people believe when a loved one dies the soul automatically goes to heaven. Well, maybe yes, and maybe no. But we do not know the state of a person's soul when he or she dies, only God knows. No matter what we think or want, we are not "the Judge," only God is.

When a person dies in state of grace but the soul is not completely prepared to enter heaven, then he or she is placed in Purgatory for purification. (God forbid that a person should die outside of the state of grace, that is, with unconfessed, unrepented mortal sin on their soul.) So, what we should be doing for the deceased is praying that our hope of salvation and eternal life with the Lord will be realized in them. Hence, each and every day, we ought to pray for and offer our sufferings for the repose of all souls.

REMEMBER
THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US.

Thursday, November 9 marks the anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral Church of Rome; St. John Lateran. This basilica is the "mother and head of all churches of Rome and the world"; residence of the popes from 4th century until their moving to Avignon (1309); site of five ecumenical councils; Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646; beneath its altar rests the remains of the small wooden table on which, according to tradition, St. Peter celebrated Mass; dedicated to the Savior, later to St. John the Baptist.
